

Responsorial Psalm

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Psalm 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

Michael Lantowski

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

This block contains the first line of the psalm. It features a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and the key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The lyrics are: "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with accompaniment in the bass clef.

1. Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, And let your faithful ones bless you.
2. The eyes of all look hopefully to you, And you give them their food in due season;
3. The LORD is just in all his ways And holy in all his works.

This block contains the first two lines of the responsory. It features a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and the key signature has three flats. The lyrics are: "1. Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, And let your faithful ones bless you. 2. The eyes of all look hopefully to you, And you give them their food in due season; 3. The LORD is just in all his ways And holy in all his works." The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with accompaniment in the bass clef.

1. Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom And speak of your might.
2. You open your hand And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
3. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, To all who call upon him in truth.

This block contains the second two lines of the responsory. It features a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and the key signature has three flats. The lyrics are: "1. Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom And speak of your might. 2. You open your hand And satisfy the desire of every living thing. 3. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, To all who call upon him in truth." The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with accompaniment in the bass clef.
